

Contents

9	Introduction New Mobilities, Alternative Autonomies Nico Dockx & Pascal Gielen
Part 1 Common Precarious Autonomy
17	14 Questions / 14 Responses Interview Thomas Hirschhorn Nico Dockx, Pascal Gielen & Sara Weyns
29	Eternal Flame Thomas Hirschhorn
47	Autonomy and Precarization Isabell Lorey
63	A Caravan of Freedom Mobile Autonomy beyond 'Auto-Mobility' Pascal Gielen
Part 2 New Autonomous Attitudes
85	Revolution / Constitution A Dog Republic
99	Nautonomat Operating Manual A Draft Design for a Collective Space of
			'Nautonomy' for Artists and their Friends Raqs Media Collective
107	Like Water Stories of Motherhood Oda Projesi
155	Quotations from / Thoughts after Symprovization on Art and Empathy Erik Hagoort, Kirsten Leenaars, Jason Pallas, Caroline Picard, Tricia Van Eck
171	Between Professional Precariousness and Creative Self- Organization The Free Performing Arts Scene in Germany Jonas Tinius
195	How to Radicalize a Mouse? Notes on Radical Opportunism Kuba Szreder
219	An Interpretation of Jef Geys' Oeuvre with Autonomy as a Voluntary Guideline Louise Osieka Jef Geys

223 Contributors

233 Arts in Society Series

237 Index

245 Colophon

