

CONTENTS

Preface .....	7–8
Prelude: Keeping the World Together .....	11–22
Ben-Ami Scharfstein
Introducing World Art Studies .....	23–61
Wilfried van Damme
 I Historiography: Envisioning Global Approaches in the Study of Art
Origins and Principles of World Art History: 1900 (and 2000) .....	69–89
Ulrich Pfisterer
The Many Beginnings and the One End of World Art History in Germany, 1900–1933 .....	91–105
Marlite Halbertsma
Can We Invent a World Art Studies? .....	107–118
James Elkins
World Art Studies and the Historiography of Chinese Art .....	119–133
Cao Yiqiang
The Discourse on Contemporary Art and the Globalization of the Art System .....	135–150
Kitty Zijlmans
 II Disciplines Meeting: Multiple Perspectives on the Study of Art
Art and the Academic Disciplines .....	157–165
The Geography of Art: Historiography, Issues, and Perspectives .....	167–182
Thomas DaCosta Kaufmann
Green Art Studies and the Local Subconscious .....	183–202
Elisabeth de Bièvre

Art, Aesthetics, and Cultural Anthropology: Retrospect and Prospect .....	203–218
Richard L. Anderson
Envisioning Art Worlds: New Directions in the Anthropology of Art .....	219–233
Paula D. Girshick

III The Arts and Our Shared Humanity: The Bioevolutionary Basis of Art-Making and Perception

The Arts After Darwin: Does Art Have an Origin and Adaptive Function? .....	241–263
Ellen Dissanayake
Neuroarthistory: Making More Sense of Art .....	265–286
John Onians

IV Comparative Approaches: Differences and Commonalities

Intercultural Comparison and Art .....	293–302
Constructed Identities: Portraiture in World Art .....	303–324
Jean M. Borgatti
Portraiture and Social Stratification .....	325–342
Donald E. Brown
The Common Humanity Evident in European, African, Indian, Chinese, and Japanese Aesthetic Theory .....	343–367
Ben-Ami Scharfstein

V Encounters: Intercultural Exchanges

Interculturalization in Art: Conceptualizing Processes and Products .....	375–384
Primitivism: The Primordium Lost and Found and Reinvented .....	385–399
Colin Rhodes
Modernities in Art: How Are They “Other”? .....	401–418
John Clark
About the Authors .....	419–422
References .....	423–450
Name Index .....	451–
Subject Index .....	–
List of Illustrations / Credits .....	–